SMITH HAYS NAMED FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE

Winchester Attorney Has Name Proposed For Both Party Nominations In Petitions

Much interest was caused in political circles Tuesday by the dispatch from Frankfort to the morning newspapers which said that petitions for J. Smith Hays, of Winchester, had been filed with the Secretary of State, to get on both the Democratic and Republican primary ballots as a candidate for Circuit Judge in this, the 25th judicial district.

Under the new non-partisan judicial law, it is permissible for a judgeship candidate to seek nomination on both party tickets. This has been done in several districts over the state, Judge Frank Bullock having done so in Fayette county and Judge Henry R. Prewitt having done so in the Mt. Sterling district.

However, the announcement from Frankfort about Mr. Hays caused surprise as it was not thought by his friends that Judge W. R. Shackelford would have opposition at this late day. Judge Shackelford's petition as a Democratic candidate has been duly filed in Frankfort.

News comes from Frankfort that the petitions filed for Mr. Hays were not signed by him personally but that his name was proposed for the Democratic nomination by two democrats of the district and for the Republican nomination by two republicans of the district. The two democrats signing that party's petition are Messrs. J. R. Dunbar and W. A. Langford, of Richmond; and the two republicans are W. O. Mays and E. S. Wiggins, of Richmond.

Mr. Hays could not be reached by telephone at his home at Winchester Tuesday morning, when an effort was made to ascertain if he authorized use of his name as a candidate for both nominations. The telephone exchange at Winchester reported him as out of town.

The Courier-Journal Tuesday also said that a petition to get his name on the Republican ballot had also been filed by Judge Shackelford, so that a race may develop between Shackelford and Hays for both the republican and democratic nominations. In such an event, if one were to win both nominations, he would go to the final election in November without opposition. But if one man won one nomination and one the other, no matter which, they would meet again the November general election.

A prominent local attorney, who is said to have discussed the matter with Mr. Hays, is said to have his assurance that if petitions were filed for him, he would not withdraw.

Judge Shackelford is at Stanton, Powell county, this week, holding circuit court.

Monday was the last day for filing petitions for state or district offices, and quite a number were filed by candidates of both parties. Dr. R. L. Davison, of Stanfords, well known here, filed his petition as the republican candidate for State Senator in the 18th district, composed of Lincoln, Garrard, Boyle, and Casey counties, opposing J. E. Robinson of Garrard, Democratic nominee without opposition. A real race is expected to result in that district as it is very close politically, but friends of Mr. Robinson say he is a sure winner.

CHAUTAUQUA

Buy a season ticket. It's the cheapest after all. The whole program by single admission costs $10; by buying a season ticket you see all of it for $3.03. The three best numbers, by single admission will cost you $3.05. You can see them, with a season ticket for $3.03, and see or hear the other eleven numbers for nothing.

The good women of the Christian church are running the Chautauqua this year trying to make some money to decorate their church. If you buy a season ticket they get half of it, if you go and pay by single admission they get only 10 per cent of it. Surely you want to help them in their laudable enterprise, as well as help yourself by attending Chautauqua.

Weather For Kentucky

Local thundershowers this afternoon or tonight; Wednesday partly cloudy; little change in temperature.

Today's Livestock Markets

Cincinnati, June 28—Good lambs steady and strong, Jersey lower; packers 10c higher; calves lower.

Louisville, June 28—Cattle 200; uneven, tops $7; hogs 1,200; strong and unchanged; sheep 2,000 uneven and unchanged; lambs $10; choice $10.50.

DEMOCRATS' NOMINEE INELIGIBLE FOR MAYOR

Louisville, Ky., June 28—Jos. M. Emmart, recommended at the recent democratic convention as the party's nominee for mayor at the election next November, Monday was declared ineligible to make the race by the Kentucky Court of Appeals, which held that Mr. Emmart's failure to register and vote at the last election disqualified him from being a candidate before the compulsory state primary in August.

There was talk last night to the effect that William Hoke Camp may be asked to make the race for mayor by the democrats. Another report is that the action of the convention as to other candidates will be ignored and a free-for-all primary will be held.

ALEX TURPIN FOR JUSTICE OF PEACE

Another prominent farmer of the Red House section, in the race for Justice of the Peace in that district, soon to be made vacant through the removal of Dr. D. J. Williams to town, is Mr. Alex Turpin, who today authorizes formal announcement of his candidacy for the Democratic nomination. Mr. Turpin is one of the most prominent farmers and land owners of his community, knows what it needs and is willing to serve it as best he can and his friends say that he would prove a very strong man on the Fiscal Court if nominated and elected. He favors good roads and public improvements, but does not favor wasting of the taxpayers' money and will work for an economical administration of the county's affairs, if honored with this office.

M'GRATH KILLED BY AUTO IN LOUISVILLE

Louisville, Ky., June 28—Frank McGrath, 65, democratic politician, was fatally injured late Monday when struck by an automobile driven by Hyman Godfrey, 14-year-old son of Benjamin Godfrey, an auctioneer at Camp Taylor.

McGrath, who was pinned against a telephone pole after the boy lost control of his machine, suffered a fractured skull and died in about thirty minutes. Miss Emma Kasper, of Jeffersonville, Ind., was run down and slightly injured at the same time. McGrath saw his danger, witnesses said, and tried to leap to safety. Young Godfrey was taken into custody immediately after the accident. McGrath had been a leader in Democratic politics in Louisville for over 25 years.

House Passes Robinson Bill For Federal Aid To Roads

Washington, June 28—After acrimonious debate lasting almost an hour, the House Monday passed the good roads bill which was offered by Congressman J. M. Robinson, republican, of Kentucky, by a vote of 266 to 77.

Many republicans attacked the measure as being extravagant in the face of promises of retrenchment, but friends of the measure held it to be the fulfillment of republican platform pledges made in the campaign. The bill is designed to keep highways improved by federal fund sin good condition.

REFORMER TRIES TO STOP BIG FIGHT

(By Associated Press)

Jersey City, N. J., June 28—Robert Watson, an official of the International Reform Bureau, accompanied by five Jersey City clergymen, appeared in Chancery Court today in an effort to block the Dempsey-Carpentier fight next Saturday. Through counsel the delegation sought an order directing Promoter Tex Rickard to show cause why an injunction restraining the bout should not be issued.

The motion for injunction was denied by the Chancellor, who gave permission to apply to another Chancellor. The Chancellor explained he could not hear the case because he is leaving town. Bureau officials left to seek another court.

Dr. Craft At Work, Too

Washington, June 28—Dr. Wilbur F. Craft, superintendent of the National Reform Bureau, announced here today that Rev. Watson's efforts to obtain an injunction is only the last move of the Bureau to stop the fight. "You may rest assured," said Crafts, "Watson, who is president of our Bureau has ample evidence to support his case. All the world knows the match is a prize fight and not a boxing contest, such as is permitted by the New Jersey law."

JUDGE SMITH TRYING TO STOP DRUNKS

Declaring that he's going to break up this promiscuous drunkenness about town or break the pocketbooks of offenders along this line, Police Judge Murray Smith soaked a number of offenders in his court Monday night. Several local young men were given severe warnings.

Preston Age, who was caught with two gallons of moonshine, when he returned from the Big Hill section, was fined $100 and held to the grand jury. He was arrested by the police for fast driving and the moonshine found. Millard Garrett, who was with him, will have a hearing Thursday night. George Robb, also in the crowd, is said to have had no connection with the affair.

Newland Agee who cut Lew Baldwin on the street here, pleaded guilty and was fined $300 and held to the grand jury.

FORMER MADISON MAN DIES IN CLARK

George Washington Lewis, 58 years old, who was born in Madison county, died at his home in Winchester, Saturday night about 11:15 o'clock of heart trouble. Mr. Lewis had been in failing health from a complication for several months and had suffered several heart attacks.

He was the son Asa K. Lewis, of Madison county, and moved to Clark county about thirty years ago, where he has since resided. He has been extensively engaged in farming since his residence in that county and also run a general merchandise store.

He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Madge McKiney, of Estill county, and two sons, Rucker H. Lewis and George M. Lewis, of Clark county, and one brother, James H. Lewis, of Richmond. Funeral services were conducted at the home at 130 East Broadway, Winchester, Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by Dr. G. W. Banks, and Rev. W. L. Byrd.

W. R. Sphar was elected president of the Winchester Bank to fill the vacancy caused by Col. N. H. Witherspoon's death.

NO MARKED CHANGE IN BUSINESS CONDITIONS

Retail Prices To Consumers Have Not Been Affected Much By Reductions, Says Report

(By Associated Press)

St. Louis, Mo., June 28—General business in the Eighth Federal Reserve district has undergone no marked change as contrasted with the month before, according to the monthly statement of business conditions given out at the bank here today. Reports from various industries indicate considerable unevenness and influencing factors are even divided between favorable and unfavorable says the report.

The public is in need of various commodities and possesses the money to buy but is demanding its money's worth. Where merchants are doing business on this basis the movement into consumption is excellent and compares favorably with former seasons. Stagnation continues in lines which have not been adjusted to square with the general leveling processes.

Keen salesmanship is returning, with the necessity of intensive work to move goods, says the report, and almost unprecedented competition is the result. Declines in fuel, labor, chemicals and distribution costs have failed to react on the price to consumers of the finished product, it continues.

Wheat is selling below $1.50 a bushel as compared with $2.86 a year ago and flour at $7.50 to $8.50 a barrel wholesale as compared with $12.50 and $13.50 a year ago. Iron and steel prices were shaved somewhat during the month and cereal markets were marked with violent fluctuations in wheat and narrow and lower quotations in coarse grains. Planting of corn is about completed in the district and cultivation is in process in some fields.

"Generally in the southern sections," says the report, "where the shortage this season is considered larger than last year, the stand is good. Needed rains have fallen in Tennessee and Mississippi and elsewhere moisture has been adequate. There are reports of chinch bugs but no serious damage from that source is noted. The condition of winter wheat is excellent. Yields in Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee and Missouri will be in excess of a year ago. In the South small crops, such as sweet potatoes, cantaloupes, watermelons, peanuts, etc., are making excellent growth. Adverse from the cotton belt are in the main pessimistic. Acreages are universally under those of 1920, recent reports placing the decrease from 20 to 40 per cent. Climatic conditions have not been auspicious. Reduced tobacco acreages seem to be the rule and that crop is backward. Farm labor is plentiful and is costing from 20 to 45 per cent less than last year."

RAILROAD TAX GOES TO SCHOOL Supt.

Railroad and bridge companies must pay common school taxes for their mileage within a county school district to the county school superintendent. This opinion was given Sam Walker, county superintendent of Whitley county, today by Attorney General Dawson in answer to Walker's query as to whether the railroad and bridge companies in Whitley county should pay the common school tax to the county superintendent of the sheriff. Before the passage of the act of 1920 which the Court of Appeals construed to mean that the whole county outside of an independent school district should pay taxes to the county school superintendent or road and bridge companies paid their taxes to the sheriff.

Geo. Sewell Dies In Jessamine

George W. Sewell, 80, died at his home in the Pink neighborhood of Jessamine County. He was the following sons, Albert Sewell, of Pink, John Sewell, of Garrard county, B. E. Sewell, of Franklin county, Matt. Sewell, of Danville, and a daughter, Mrs. Lena Brock, of Jessamine county.

Wheat Drops 9 Cents

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, June 28—Severe breaks in the price of wheat took place today. Some sales showed a loss of much as 9 cents a bushel. Free selling on the part of country holders was responsible.

FRANK BARNETT GETS $50 FOR DEATH OF DOG

Frank Barnett was awarded a judgment for $50 against Joe Ross for the killing of his dog, in county court Tuesday. He was suing for $200 damages. Mr. Ross shot the dog the latter part of May. It seems that a number of dogs belonging to people on Moberly avenue had been making a playground of a vacant lot belonging to Mr. Ross. In trying to put a stop to this, he "sprinkled" two dogs that he happened to see in the lot one evening, and Mr. Barnett's dog happened to be one of the two. The dog died from the injuries received from the shot which also struck Mr. Barnett.

Col. R. C. Oldham was attorney for Mr. Barnett, while Attorney A. R. Burman acted for the defendant. Both lawyers handled their cases before the court with much zeal. Col. Oldham's description of a dog's faithfulness to his master was touching.

The jury journeyed to the lot to view the site of the canine tragedy.

Messrs. Baughman, Gott, Parks and Soper were witnesses for the plaintiff, Messrs. Black, Turpin, Cox, Smith, and Wells were witnesses for the defendant. It was proven that Barnett's dogs were hardly ever out without being with some member of the Barnett family and that he was under Frank Barnett's control at the time of the shooting. He was a very fine coon dog. Mr. Barnett testified that he had refused several offers of $200 for him, and would not have sold him for $500. He said he was greatly attached to the animal.

U. S. TO PROSECUTE LUXURY TAX EVADERS

(By Associated Press)

New York, June 28—With the indictment by a federal grand jury here today of Martin and Martin, leather goods leaders, on a charge of violating the 1918 revenue act and conspiring to defraud the government by evading payment of luxury taxes, United States Attorney Hayward announced marked the beginning of a campaign against evaders of that tax. He asserted the firm collected luxury taxes from customers and kept them. He indicated that instructions to prosecute the cases came from Commissioner of Internal Revenue Blair.

NEW CONGRESSMEN TAKE BIT IN TEETH

(By Associated Press)

Washington, June 28—Representative Anson of New York, today issued a statement saying that the new republican members of the House are dissatisfied with the progress made by Congress, and he and ten others have joined in a call for a conference tomorrow night of approximately a hundred new republican members to discuss the situation. He asserted the meeting is not in a spirit of revolt, but the members desire to "substitute action for delay."

Railway Employees Still Voting On Wage Reductions

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, June 28—Reports of an overwhelming vote for rejection of the average eight per cent wage reduction recently ordered for all railroad shop employees by the Federal Railway Labor Board is branded as misleading by B. M. Jewell, head of the shop organization, here today. He said two-thirds of the six hundred thousand membership voted. He added "a few votes might swing it either way."

Charles J. Bonaparte Dead

SCRATCH OF PIN FATAL TO YOUNG WIFE

Friends here of Stout Lillard, of Danville, regretted to learn of the death of his wife, Mrs. Jane Crawford Lillard, who died at the Danville hospital Monday following a short illness of blood poisoning. Mrs. Lillard was 25 years old. Mr. Lillard and one child, a daughter, 9 months old, survive. She was the daughter of Dr. C. K. Crawford, of Louisville, and the sister of Mrs. Vance Taylor, of that city. Mrs. Lillard was a graduate of the Kentucky College for Women. She and her husband just recently returned from France. Her death was most intimate, it being said that the scratch of a pin on her face caused the blood poisoning.

DIXIE HIGHWAY MEETING IN BEREA

An important meeting of the Dixie Highway Committee was held at Boone Tavern last Friday night. Dixie boosters of Berea and vicinity entertained Mr. Hill the newly elected director of the Dixie Highway Commission, and his party of enthusiastic boosters of the highway from Cincinnati and Lexington, says the Berea Citizen. Among the well known members of the party were Dr. Bonfield, president of the Cincinnati Auto Club, Mr. Culkins, secretary of the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce, and Mr. Len Shouse, manager of the new Lafayette hotel in Lexington.

Mr. J. W. Herndon was master of ceremonies, and in this capacity served in his usual happy fashion.

Speeches were made by Director Hill, Mr. Culkins, Dr. Bonfield, Mr. Bradberry, road engineer of Rockcastle county, and others. The speech of the evening was made by Dr. Bonfield, whose subject was the "Evolution of Transportation," in which the speaker stressed the wonderful progress that has been made during the past century in the matter of transportation. He mentioned the fact that the steamboat, the trolley, and the railroad train were being supplanted in large measure by the motor truck, and in order to make this means of travel profitable and enjoyable it was necessary to have good highways crossing our country from east to west and north to south.

The Highway Commission was making an official tour of inspection, suggested by Judge M. M. Allison, of Chattanooga, Tenn., president of the Dixie Highway Association.

"While here Mr. Hill received a telegram from Governor Davis, of Ohio, stating that he had invited the governors of the states thru which the Highway runs to send representatives to a meeting to be held in Cincinnati the latter part of September."

Mr. Bradberry reported the grade in condition for travel thru Rockcastle, and the party left on Saturday morning to make an inspection of the highway thru the county.

FRANKFORT MUST PASS ON NEW SCHOOL PLANS

Chapman Calls Attention to State Law That Superintendent Approve Them

(By Associated Press)

Frankfort, Ky., June 28—The county superintendents and educational boards must observe the state law requiring that plans for new school buildings be submitted to the office of the State Superintendent for approval, according to a letter just sent out from the office of J. Virgil Chapman, state superintendent of Rural Schools. The letter calls the attention of the superintendents and boards to the law and urges that it be kept in mind and that those who have not been observing it do so.

Mr. Chapman stated, in giving out the letter, that most of the counties have been observing the law but that in visiting summer schools he had found that in a number of counties, buildings had been erected without compliance with the law.

"We hope later," said Mr. Chapman, "to have a law providing for a commissioner of school buildings. At present, however, the office of the state superintendent, with the cooperation of the State Board of Health passes on the plans."

The letter calls attention to the fact that nine tenths of the regulations governing school building construction in the various states have been passed within the last fifteen years. At least 14 of the 48 states have some legal requirements in this connection.

In two thirds of the states, he says, approval of the plans and specifications or even plans for enlargement of school buildings is vested in the state authorities. In some states the board of health cooperates.

"Judging from reports to the United States Bureau of Education," he said, "general satisfaction has resulted from such laws. It results in freeing the local boards of demands of persons with some influence and who may have personal demands to make, and often results in securing local cooperation which could not be obtained otherwise if plans were made and passed upon solely by local agencies."

In some states, he said, state funds are being used to aid in getting local aid.

METHODISTS EXTEND MOUNTAIN WORK

(By Associated Press)

Pineville, Ky., June 28—Dr. Karl W. G. Hiller, for twenty years connected with the Methodist Episcopal church, has joined the staff of the Southeastern District of the Kentucky conference as Community Extension Director. It was announced here today by Rev. Ollie Regan, superintendent of the district. He will have charge of the community programs of the district in mountain coal mining camps.

Dr. Hiller, whose headquarters for a number of years has been in Lincoln, Nebraska, is known in church work as a community organization specialist. He organized the first community project in the middle west and has been doing much work in the rural districts of Nebraska for several years. For a time he was survey director for the Interchurch World Movement in Nebraska.

In addition to Dr. Hiller, a number of evangelists are doing constructive work for the conference in the Harlan district and Home Missionary Organization and the Women's Home Missionary Society of the church have sent a number of workers in to the district. This work is under the direction of Mrs. Regan, wife of the superintendent.

Follis' Wife Gets Reward

Frankfort, Ky., June 28—The wife and children of John A. Follis, charged with shooting four policemen here two weeks ago, today were given the $500 reward offered for his capture. The reward offered by Governor Morrow was paid to Thomas E. Kenney, one of the captors of Follis, and he turned the money over to the wife of the accused man.

Civilization's Greatest Achievement

Some Eskimos were brought down to Edmonton, Alberta, on official business.

They had never before been south of the Arctic Circle.

They had never seen a street, a town, a window, or a wooden door. A bed, a water tap, and an electric light produced completely new sensations. Street cars were unknown to them; telephones unheard of; trains not to be believed even when beheld.

They had never seen an automobile until someone took them riding in one. They had never set their eyes on an airplane until someone did his most daring stunts in one to thrill them. They had never even seen a movie!

But what do you suppose moved them most in the whole bag of tricks which civilization produced for their amusement and amazement?

What seemed to them the greatest wonder of all?

The cold storage plants!

The White Man didn't always have to hunt and fish when he wanted to eat!

Here was civilization's greatest gift, its greatest benefaction.

This feature of civilization makes it possible for Swift & Company, in the season of over production, to store a supply of food for distribution in the season of scant, or non-production. Thus we are able to maintain for all a constant supply of such choice and necessary foods as Premium Milk-fed Chickens, Brookfield Butter and Brookfield Eggs.

Governor Morrow and

The Blair Case

(From the Lexington Leader.)
"Newspaper readers are familiar with the facts, in so far as they have been made public, relating to the pardon issued to Frank Blair by Gov. Morrow.

"For his action in this case Gov. Morrow has been severely criticised by the democratic press and the Lexington Leader regrets that it is unable to go to his defense.

Granting that the Governor was misled or imposed upon, he is none the less responsible for what in its best aspect was an inexcusable blunder.

"This newspaper, with a fair appreciation of the temperament of Governor Morrow, is satisfied that in the Blair case he was misled by generous impulses which, for the moment, caused him to overlook a higher duty toward the cause of law and order and to the people who trusted him with the power which he is now at liberty to exercise.

"It is likewise true that one misstep should not forever condemn a public official, no more than one good deed should protect him perpetually from attack for official wrong-doing.

"The Blair episode and its unhappy consequences should warn Governor Morrow against some of the pitfalls which beset political pathway. He is himself wise enough to recognize them. If he has not in fact already sensed some of them he is not big enough to serve out his term of office. The degree to which he is henceforth true to the state, his real friends and to his own fortunes will be the measure of the esteem in which he will be held during the years to come.

"Ed Morrow, the man, is one person. Edwin P. Morrow, Governor of Kentucky, is another individual altogether. In the judgment of the Lexington Leader there are influences at work in the republican party in Kentucky with highly potential democratic relationships, which seek to attach themselves like parasites to the administration of Governor Morrow. These influences, if not overridden by the Governor, will wreck both him and his party. If they succeed in their designs both he and his party will deservedly be driven from places of power in this state.

"Whether Mr. Morrow proposes to be a real Governor, holding every department and every subordinate official to strict accountability for faithful observance of the laws, and himself free from all sinister influences, the course of his administration to its end must show.

"Mr. Morrow, as the republican nominee for Governor, was cordially and energetically supported by the Lexington Leader. It is believed that he would fulfill the expectations of his friends. It is believed today that he is capable of discharging the duties of his high office with credit to himself and to the satisfaction of those who placed their trust in him.

"Today he is or should be standing where two roads meet and cross. He can follow the one which beckoned to him when he signed the Blair pardon, or he can take the other and choose courageously to serve the highest interests of his Commonwealth, regardless of all other considerations, political or personal.

"Ed Morrow, if he so elects, can be a great and respected Governor. Will he decide to be merely a good fellow—following a pirate crew which has nailed to its mast-head 'The Public Be Damned!'

Why Maude Lost

Maude Muller—let me put you wise—
Was raking hay to "advertise";
To the rich old judge she would "sell"
Her stanning charms, this rural belle!
And when the judge came riding by,
He boldly winked his near-side eye,
Maude's eyes were dropp'd oh fie,
Oh fudge!
She missed the wink—and lost the judge!

"Mas!" quoth she, "Ah, now I'm hep!"
My ad. was good, but I lacked pep."

All The Change, In Fact

A beautiful young lady got out of a magnificent limousine the other night and entered the Metropolitan Opera House in New York.

The young lady had recently been the heroine of a terrible scandal, and as she settled herself gracefully in her box, her gorgeous pearls sent murmur of admiration through the audience.

In the midst of this murmur, Major James de Rothchild, Baron Edmond de Rothchild's heir, said in a sarcastic voice:

"The woman pays—yes, but she frequently manages to get a great deal of change."—Los Angeles Times.

Here's why CAMELS are the quality cigarette

BECAUSE we put the utmost quality into this one brand. Camels are as good as it's possible for skill, money and lifelong knowledge of fine tobaccos to make a cigarette.

Nothing is too good for Camels. And bear this in mind! Everything is done to make Camels the best cigarette it's possible to buy. Nothing is done simply for show.

Take the Camel package for instance. It's the most perfect packing science can devise to protect cigarettes and keep them fresh. Heavy paper—secure foil wrapping—revenue stamp to seal the fold and make the package air-tight. But there's nothing flashy about it. You'll find no extra wrappers. No frills or furbelows.

Such things do not improve the smoke any more than premiums or coupons. And remember—you must pay their extra cost or get lowered quality.

If you want the smoothest, mellowest, mildest cigarette you can imagine—and one entirely free from cigarette aftertaste,

It's Camels for you.

The farmers have been made happy by the local showers and judging from the clink of the wedding hoes in the tobacco field they seem to be much encouraged.

While none so far as we know has signed the cooperative marketing plan contract, there seems to be a growing interest among the farmers concerning the new organization. It's not reasonable to believe that the farmers of this section as well as the farmers of other sections should not see the imperative duty they owe themselves and their families in regard to marketing the thing which they have labored so hard to produce, and I believe that when the time comes the boys will rally to the support of the good cause.

Then forget about bake

WRITES LETTER

How She Was Restored to Health
by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Sunnyside, Ky.—"I suffered for more than two years with my back and nervousness, and was unable to help my mother do the housework. I took treatment from two doctors and they did not do me any good.
Mother saw Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the paper
and I took about ten bottles. It has done me a great deal of good. I weigh 135 pounds and am in good health. I will gladly recommend Vegetable Compound to anyone who suffers with the troubles which I had,
and you are welcome to publish my testimonial."—VELMER HENDRICK, Route
1, Sunnyside, Ky.

To many American girls life is often a heavy drag in consequence of illness, and every mother should heed the first manifestations, such as cramps, backaches, headaches and nervousness as Mrs. Hendrick did for her daughter, and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial. For over forty years this old-fashioned root and herb medicine has been relieving women of just such troubles.

Ralph Bingham's versatility excites the wonder of any audience. He is a fine pianist, an excellent violinist, a unique impersonator and an unequalled story teller. A combination of these gifts is used to excellent advantage on his Redpath programs as well as on the records which he makes for the Victrola.

The success of his stories is in him-his jollity is irresistible. Never-

Booze is Not a Good Cure

Charles Ray Buys Bungalow

Why? He Knows, Won't Tell

Many scenes from Charles Ray's latest picture on "small town" life, "An Old-Fashioned Boy," which is shown at local theatre tonight, are laid around an attractive bungalow which was especially constructed for the scenes in the picture. Built on one of the choicest of elevated sites in Hollywood, California,
the location so impressed Mr.
Ray that after scenes had been taken he expressed his desire to purchase the land. After much persuasion Thomas H. Ince, who held a lease on the land sold it to Mr. Ray. What Ray intends to do with the land is a mystery.

"An Old-Fashioned Boy" affords a typical country boy's role for Mr. Ray while the situation are highly interesting. There are Agnes Christine Johnston.

GIRLS! BLEACH SKIN
WHITE WITH LEMON

Squeeze the juice of a lemon into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply you for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of harmless and delightful lemon bleach.
Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms, and hands each day, they shortly note the beauty and whiteness of your skin.

Famous stage beauties use this lemon lotion to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rosy-white complexion, also as a freckle, sunburn, and tan bleach because it doesn't irritate.

Many laughs throughout the action. The story was written by Agnes Christine Johnston.

Want to Feel Just Right?

Take an NR Tonight

JUST TRY IT AND SEE how much better you feel in the morning. That "loazy" headache, tired, don't-know-what's-the-matter feeling will be gone—you'll feel fine.

TRouble IS, your system is clogged with a lot of impurities that your overworked digestive and eliminative organs can't get rid of. Filthy oils, salts, catenol and ordinary laxatives, cathartics and purges only force the bowels and prod the liver.

Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) acts on the stomach, liver, bowels and even kidneys, not forcing, but toning and strengthening these organs. The result is prompt relief and real, lasting benefit. Make the test.
Nature's Remedy will act promptly, thoroughly, yet so mildly, so gently, that you will think nature herself has come to the rescue and is doing the work.

And oh, what a relief! You'll be surprised to find how much better you feel—brighter, better every way.

If habitually or stubbornly constipated, take one NR Tablet each night for a week.
Then you'll not have to take medicine every day. Just an occasional NR Tablet after that will be sufficient to keep your system in good condition—keep you feeling your best.

Cut This out and Take it with You

A man often forgets the exact name of the article he wishes to purchase, and as a last resort he takes something else instead. That is always disappointing and unsatisfactory. The safe way is to cut this out and take it with you so as to make sure of getting Chamberlain's Tablets. You will find nothing quite so satisfactory for constipation and indigestion. —June

LEIGON NEWS

Almost incredible feats of bravery and sacrifice of members of the American Legion in administering relief to the flood-swept city of Pueblo, Colo., were recited by Harry A. Sullivan, of Denver, Colo., in a recent report to the national executive committee of the American Legion. The committee voted $500 for relief work.

The only bridge left standing at Pueblo following the rush of floodwaters was a railroad trestle at Buttes. Over this quaking structure in the darkest hours of the night passed the first relief trucks to enter the stricken city. The trucks were manned by members of the American Legion. The last word out of Pueblo after the waters swept down upon the city was a call for help from Pueblo posts of the American Legion to their comrade posts in Denver. The response was immediate. The legion men were the first to enter the city. They procured boats and rescued survivors from house-tops and second stories. After the waters had receded the Legionnaires remained on duty to assist in caring for the suffering survivors.

TO REDUCE DANGEROUS REDPATH HAS VARICOSE VEINS NEW EQUIPMENT

People who have swollen veins or hunches should not wait until they reach the bursting point, which means much suffering and loss of time, but should at once secure from any reliable druggist a two-ounce original bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil (full strength.)

By using this powerful, yet harmless germicide treatment, improvement is noticed in a few days and by its regular use swollen veins will return to their normal size, and sufferers will cease to worry. Moore's Emerald Oil treatment is used by physicians and hospitals and is guaranteed to accomplish results or money returned.

It reduces all kinds of enlarged glands, goiters and wens and is used exclusively in many large factories as an unfailing first aid to the injured and aseptically. Generous sample on receipt of 15 cents, silver or stamps. International Laboratories, Rochester, N. Y. Your druggist can supply you.

FOR SALE—Two 20-foot sections good jacketed thresher suction tank hose; a bargain. B. F.

Not the least among the features of the Redpath Chautauqua, which opens here Friday, will be an entirely new equipment, even to the chairs. This tent was designed by the Baker-Stafford Co. of Kansas City, Mo., and is one of the most beautiful and convenient of its kind. Especial attention has been given to the acoustics and everyone even in the very rear is assured of hearing perfectly. It has a seating capacity of 2,000 people and is equal in every way to a first class auditorium.

Dr. Frederick Monsen Selects Vital Chautauqua Topic.

Well-Known Explorer and Lecturer Has First-Hand Knowledge of Sister Republic.

Dr. Frederick Monsen's illustrated lecture on Mexico will be one of the notable features of the coming Redpath Chautauqua.

graphed and studied the country and the people, and came into personal contact with such men as Diaz, Huerta, Villa, Carranza and Obregon.

Doctor Monsen's vigorous presentation is entirely unprejudiced by any commercial or political interest in the country.

The lecture is illustrated by magnificent pictures.

Buy a season ticket. It's the cheapest after all. The whole program by single admission costs $10.00, by buying a season ticket you can see all of it for $3.03. The three best numbers by single admission will cost you $3.05. You can see them, with a season ticket for $3.03, and see or hear the other eleven numbers for nothing.

The good women of the Christian church are running the Chautauqua this year trying to make some money to decorate their church. If you buy a season ticket they get half of it, if you go and pay by single admission they get only 10 per cent of it. Surely you want to help them in their laudable enterprise, as well as help yourself by attending Chautauqua.

CHARLEY ROGERS BEATS PRESBYTERIANS

With Crack Twirler Borrowed for the Occasion, Catholics Win Fast Game By 11 to 9

HOW THEY STAND
CLUB	W	L	Pct.
First Christians	8	1	.889
Second Christians	5	4	.556
Baptists	5	4	.556
Presbyterians	4	5	.444
Catholics	2	4	.333
Methodists	2	7	.222

(By E. T. Higgins)
Charley Rogers added another victory to his credit by holding the Presbyterians to 9 runs while the Catholics made 11. The struggle took place on Normal field Monday. The Presbyterians did all their scoring in the first four innings. The game lasted one more round than it was scheduled. Rogers held the Presbyterian crew safe in the last few rounds while his buddies won the game. Of the six men that Rogers struck out, three were whiffed in the first inning and the other three in the eighth inning. In the third inning Keith had to strike out four men to retire the side as Crutcher let one of the last strikes get away from him for a passed ball.

Changes were numerous in this slugging match. Bill Burnam played at four positions, first base pitcher, left field and behind the bat. Keith changed from first to pitcher at least three times. Of the six errors made by the Presbyterians four were made in the first inning. In no inning did either pitcher not allow a hit. In the fourth inning a total of seven hits was made.

Keith led his team in hitting with a home run, a double and two singles in five times up. His home run was a lucky one. O'Neil the Catholic right fielder, started to play the ball on the fly and then changed his mind, the ball bounded over his head, and back where he thought it was it could not be found. By the time he discovered his mistake Keith, as slow as he is, had completed the circuit.

Asbill played a corking good game at the keystone position, handling all his chances with perfect ease and hitting with vigor. A groan would set up from the Presbyterian bench as a ball would head his direction. He handled eleven chances without making a bobbie.

After the score had remained a tie for three innings the Catholics won out on hits by Elder, Blevins, Asbill and a batter hit by a pitched ball.

There go the Methodists to the cellar again and up go the Catholics. Wonder when their bubble will burst.

PAIGE

The Most Beautiful Car in America

Now It Costs $1635

Even before the price reduction on June 7th, our five-passenger "Glenbrook" model was conceded to be the greatest dollar-for-dollar value of all light six motor cars.

Now—with the price reduced to $1635—it must be evident that opportunity is knocking at the door of every man who knows an unusual investment when he sees it.

The new price is amazingly low. It will appear absurd after you have had one ride behind the motor that accelerates from five to twenty-five miles per hour in nine seconds flat.

And remember, please, the "Glenbrook" is a distinctly new product—not an old model repainted and re-christened with a 1921 label. It is a splendid investment now and will be a splendid investment one year from now.

Selling more clothes to bring down prices

That's what we are doing in this store—working for volume. The more we sell the less we have to add to the price of each suit to cover the cost of doing business.

Some stores wait for the increased volume before reducing prices; they seldom get it. Our way is to reduce the price first; that brings the increased volume.

DR. ALLEN'S MEETING OPENS AT CALVARY

Dr. D. Edgar Allen was greeted by a good audience for a Monday night service at Calvary Baptist church last night. His sermon was plain, positive and yet rich and tender. The first clause of Psalm 55:12 was his text: Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation.

These vital points were emphasized; first, the great joy of the human heart in being saved by grace; second, the greater joy of that comes through winning some lost ones to Christ; and third, we do not have salvation but we lose the joy of it by neglect of prayer, neglect of Bible reading and by failure to believe what we read in the Bible.

The preacher pictured very vividly how that the joy of really being saved by faith in Christ is a joy greater than the "heavens are above the earth." And he exclaimed "the joy of winning a lost soul to Christ is the greatest joy the human heart can experience." Everyone went away rejoicing.

WEAK; RUN-DOWN

Carolina Lady Got So She Could Just Drag—"Cardui Built Me Up," She Declares.

Kernersville, N. C.—In an interesting statement regarding Cardui, the Woman's Tonic, Mrs. Wesley Mabe, of near here, recently said: "I have known Cardui for years, but never knew its worth until a year or so ago. I was in a weakened, run-down condition. I became draggy—didn't eat or sleep to do any good; couldn't do anything without a great effort. I tried different remedies and medicines, yet I continued to drag.

"I decided to give Cardui a trial, and found it was just what I really needed. It made me feel much stronger soon after I began to use it. I began to eat more, and the nervous, weak feeling began to leave. Soon I was sleeping good.

"Cardui built me up as no other tonic ever did. I used Cardui with one daughter who was puny, felt bad and tired out all the time. It brought her right out, and soon she was as well as a girl could be. We think there is nothing like Cardui."

Do not allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. You may find it just what you really need. For more than 40 years it has been used by thousands and thousands, and found just as Mrs. Mabe describes. At your druggist's. NC-143

DROWNING MAN SAYS HE SAW "OTHER SIDE"

Chicago, June 28—Roland Aby, 20 years old, a junior at Northwestern University, was pronounced dead by Captain Garland of the United States Coast Guard.

Thomas Leonard who was with Aby when their canoe capsized, also was considered dead, but was restored after long effort.

Today young Aby sat up very much alive, and related his weird experience during the forty-five minutes the life savers were working on him with pulmotors.

"There is some sort of life after what we call death," said Aby. "I can no longer doubt it after my experiences. If you can imagine a world filled with the most gorgeous dabs of futuristic colors—purples and golds and crimsons—a world peopled by a fantastic variety of beings, resembling more nearly than anything else, Russian ballet dancers, you will have some idea of the hereafter which I experienced yesterday.

"It was a rhythmic world, pulsing constantly to a 1-2-3-4 movement. I am not altogether sure of the nature of that life, if life it be, but there is a continuance of human conscience after the phenomenon which we call death, though it may be a consciousness of a sort different from any that we know about. I am now certain of that.

"The world in which I lived during those forty-five minutes was a world of what we commonly know as the subconscious. It was something like the sensations one experiences after taking gas, only the sensations and impressions were a great deal more vivid and more easily recalled."

House Votes Against

Beer As Medicine
Washington, June 28—The House last night by a vote of 250 to 94, voted that beer and light wines shall not be used as a medicine in the United States. It passed the Willis-Campbell bill, supplementing the Volstead prohibition enforcement act, to forestall the execution of a regulation providing for prescription of beer and light wines as medicine, held by Mitchell Palmer, former Attorney General, to be within the law. The bill has not yet passed the Senate, but is expected to be considered by that body in the near future. Meanwhile regulations to permit prescription of beer and light wines are being held up by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. Representative Ogden, republican, of Louisville, was the only Kentucky Congressman to vote against the bill.

Agriculture and the New Day

The address of H. A. Laine before the Teachers' Review class, at the Richmond Colored High School building, June 24, 1921.

Fellow Teachers:— I have been asked by Professor Bates to say a word along the line of Agriculture to this assembly of teachers of the Teachers' Review class. I always feel happy and at home among teachers, because for twenty-six years I taught in the rural schools, and know something of the drudgery, monotony, the heart breaking daily grind of the rural teacher. Today on the summit of happiness, tomorrow in the valley of despair. Yet I know of no calling in which one has such an opportunity to render real service to humanity services of such vital and far reaching importance. You stand as an army guarding civilization. You are the vanguard of progress. You are the world's torchbearers. You are the light houses along life's rocky shore. We stand this afternoon at the dawn of a great day. Civilization recently severely tested, moves ever onward, touching and awakening races and nations. New relationships are being established, new ideals, new standards of living are being set up. New ambitions and aspirations are everywhere, moving people to give to the world the best service they can render. Agriculture, the basis of all business and professions, commands the attention of the world as never before, for the question of food is ever before us, with ever increasing importance. The obsolete methods of agriculture of the past must be supplanted with the newer and better methods of today if this country is to escape the terrible fate of China, starving on those broad and once fertile plains, because she closed her eyes to agricultural progress and refused to advance with the rest of the world. She still plows with the same kind of crooked stick she plowed with two thousand years ago, while the western American farmer mounts his tractor hitched to gang plows and turns twenty furrows at once. She still cuts her grain with the ancient reap hook and threshes it out with old time flails while our western farmer mounts his tractor hitched to a machine which cuts off the heads of the grain, threshes and sacks it at one operation. She has allowed lumber speculators to cut down her once magnificent forests, permitting rapid erosion of soil, carried by rainstorms down into her river beds, filling them up and causing frequent overflows, destroying towns and cities, followed by droughts and epidemics and famine which threatens the very existence of the Chinese nation. Lack of civic pride has resulted in poor roads and bridges, and poor transportation facilities, making it almost impossible to get help to her in time and as a result, China is starving. The entire world's business structure rests upon agriculture and realizing that fact governments, national and state, are cooperating with colleges of agriculture to promote farming, stock raising and community life. Books are being written, lectures given, illustrated by screen pictures, to impress agriculture upon the public mind and laws are being made requiring agriculture to be taught in our public schools, and everything points to a universal awakening in the agricultural world. Let us rejoice that we live in this great day and have a hand in training the men and women who are to be the actors in the great drama of the new day, for the greatest product of the farms are the bright-eyed boys and girls, and what an array of talent from humble farm homes has marshaled the forces of progress in the past! George Washington, of Virginia, Abraham Lincoln, of Kentucky, Frederick Douglas, of Maryland, and Booker T. Washington, of Virginia, are samples of the farm's greatest product raised in God's great outdoors.

mid peaceful solitudes of rural life, where minds of men grow broad and strong and pure, these intellectual giants with echoes in their souls of singing birds and babbling brooks have added to history illustrious chapters. The real teacher, the teacher of tomorrow, will not be content with the daily class room routine, the assignment and hearing of lessons out of books, other folks have written, but she will be a leader in the community, taking active part in everything that makes for a better community, by her intelligence, her tact, her personality, compel people to quit the beaten paths of slothfulness and indifference and walk with her upon the highways of life.

Like the Great Teacher she will go about doing good. Through Parents and Teachers' Associations, thru the various farm clubs she will reach out and bring the people together in helpful cooperation, stimulating interdependence, community pride and social ability, relieving the loneliness and isolation and by her reading circles, round table discussions and singing classes enrich their lives spiritually and intellectually. When I speak of singing I do not refer to jazz music, echoes of ancient barbaric ceremonies, music which causes the basest passions of human nature, but good and wholesome melodies, religious and patriotic, which elevate and ennoble human nature. The result will be a more contented rural population, who more than any other class of citizens have rendered unselfish service, uncomplainingly for the good of all. And when at last the teacher's work is done and she sits with tired, folded hands, looking into the glowing west of life's golden sunset, there shall come to her a whisper out of the quiet twilight. "Well done, good and faithful servant, you have been faithful over a few things, come up higher and enter into the joys of thy Lord."
